Health Navigation of CNY – Health Navigation of CNY, owned and operated by Carrie Scholz, is a private, patient advocacy consultation practice. A patient advocate helps individuals facing serious medical conditions navigate the system to insure their needs are addressed, that they are comfortable communicating with their healthcare team and making informed treatment decisions. Carrie is a patient advocate with over 30 years of professional social work experience in medical social work and community mental health. She has worked in organizations providing patient education and support, treatment option research, education about clinical trials and patient advocacy. Her areas of expertise and interest include oncology, ALS (Lou Gehrig’s disease) and medical social work. Carrie knows the healthcare system as a patient, as a caregiver and as a professional. This personal journey informs her work and her passion for helping individuals gain a sense of control through their own healthcare journey. Carrie is available to speak to groups on topics related to patient advocacy and being a proactive healthcare consumer. Please visit www.HealthNavigationofCNY.com, or email Carrie@HealthNavigationofCNY.com for more information.

Owasco Paddles – Owasco Paddles has kayaks, Hobie pedal kayaks, stand-up paddleboards and paddleboats for rent at Emerson Park on Owasco Lake in Auburn, NY, as well as Cayuga Lake at Frontenac Park in Union Springs, NY. We love having your furry friends come to visit. At Emerson Park, we have doggie life vests of all sizes, so be sure to bring the four-legged members of your family with you. Our helpful staff is available 7 days a week to answer all of your questions. To contact visit: www.owascopaddles.com, 315-567-1437.

Sinclair of Skaneateles – Our new and exciting venue, The Sinclair of Skaneateles, will be up and running in 2017. We are hoping to create a memorable experience in our extraordinary setting. We are located at the beautiful historic old Sinclair Chair Factory built in 1871 on Skaneateles Creek. With gorgeous views and attention to historic detail, our goal is to produce a unique setting to create memories of a lifetime. Guests have all day access, will be the only event occurring in our facility that day, and have 100% of our attention! We are very excited and eager to get started!!!!Owners include Bob and Pat Carberry, their four sons, and good friend Kelly and Dave Engle. With an amazing crew to complete renovations, Doug Wood LLC, Jesse, and Kerri, the chemistry is amazing! We are only 1.9 miles from the center of Skaneateles village. Enjoy our beautiful fireplace inside or our outdoor fire pit on the patio by the water. We look forward to meeting with you and holding your special event at The Sinclair. For more information, call Pat at (315) 730-6620.

SJ Moore Fine Art Gallery – Steve Moore is delighted to announce the grand opening of his fine art gallery at 5 E. Genesee Street, Suite #2 (entrance from the Municipal Parking Lot). Artwork includes paintings by local renowned Hudson Valley School artists, such as Frank Barney, John Barrow, George Clough and much more. This gallery is an outgrowth of Steve’s passion for art and has evolved into a collection that he wishes to share and give his clients the opportunity to acquire. Many of the works are by well-known artists of the Finger Lakes. Gallery open Saturdays from Noon to 4 pm. For more information call 685-7888.
